A beautiful and most decorative pair of Italian early 19th century Neo-Classical st. Giltwood and Glass pedestals. Each very attractive pedestal is raised by three pierced cabriole legs and supported on a triangular mottled edge base with concave sides. The three legs of each pedestal have a singular leg with a paw foot, scrolling bands on the inside, and an open winged sphinx. The three sphinges display fluted socles above their head which support the circular top above. The top is decorated with dentil designs and a carved beaded pattern which surrounds the Glass display shelf.
