A most charming and small scale pair of Italian early 19th century Oil on Canvas and Giltwood paintings of Roman landmarks. The two colorful and intricately detailed painting depict St. Peter's Square and the Roman Square of Santa Maria Minerva. Each painting displays incredible attention to details with the buildings, figures and clouds all captured in vivid color. The richly carved original Giltwood frame display mottled borders, an inner twisted ribbon, and beaded band on all four sides.
