An exceptional pair of Italian mid 18th century Louis XVI period walnut inlaid commodes. Each chest has three drawers with all original iron pulls and keyhole escutcheons and the original interior hand painted paper liners. Magnificent inlay designs adorn each drawer, with a central urn and eternity designed border topped with foliate garland fruitwood inlay at the top. The sides are likewise inlaid and decorated. At the top is an exquisite quarter veneered design centered by an inlaid medallion of an urn within the eternity style border. All original patina and hardware.
