A whimsical and most lovely pair of Italian Turn of the Century Louis XVI st. patinated wood and Gilt Toile sconces. Each most attractive and colorful two arm sconce with its original patination is centered by a patinated Toile acanthus leaf bottom finial displaying light accents of rose colors. Above the bottom finial is an additional royal blue scrolling acanthus leaf which separates the two gently curved and twisted arms extending on either side.

At the end of each arm is an array of foliate sprays of different flowers including an attractive floral pendant below the bobèche. The fluted and tapered body has a top cap of gilded rosettes on each side with additional fluted designs. The top crown is in the shape of a charming urn displaying colorful floral and foliate designs with two swaging foliate garlands which attach to each arm below. All original patination throughout.
