A sensational and most elegant pair of Japanese 19th century Imari Porcelain and French Louis XV st. Ormolu mounted vases. Each colorful vase is raised by a pierced Ormolu base with an upper mottled circular band and supported on scrolling foliate and floral designs below. The slender elegantly curved Imari Porcelain vases display beautiful foliate designs and most decorative traditional patterns with architectural structures on the back side. The top rim of each truly beautiful vase is elegantly decorated with a berried foliate Ormolu band.
