A high quality pair of possibly Russian mid 19th century Neo-Classical st. ormolu urns on presenters. Each is raised by four ormolu pawed feet flanked by rosettes. The plateau is decorated with a richly chased trim surrounding the fitted porphyry center. Above lays the exquisitely chased oval urn, raised by a moulded oval shaped pedestal, decorated with large acanthus leaves and is topped by a moulded trim. The urns are decorated similarly with acanthus leaves and foliage. The urns have 'S' scrolled acanthus leaf handles centered by a rosette. All original gilt and rich chasing throughout.
