A sensational and most impressive pair of Russian 19th century Neo-Classical st. cobalt blue glass, rock crystal, and ormolu candelabras. Each six arm candelabra is raised by an elegant square base with arched sides, concave corners, and a fine wrap around mottled band. The ormolu socle shaped pedestal supports display lovely wrap around beaded bands below beautiful foliate designs encasing the exceptional and extremely decorative hand blown cobalt blue glass bodies. Above are the six elegantly curved arms adorned with a stunning array of rock crystal garlands and charming flowers with tear drop pendants. The arms above display superb pierced candle cups with beautiful floral designs and lovely smaller wrap around tear drop pendants centering the spectacular solid rock crystal dagger with a top spray with kite shaped rock crystal pendants. All original gilt throughout.
