An elegant pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Sèvres porcelain lamps. Each lamp is raised by a mottled square base decorated with fine wrap around scrolled gilt foliate designs. Above the socle shaped pedestals, the urn shaped bodies are decorated with beautiful wonderfully executed hand painted scenes. The lamp to the left depicts a young lady wearing a period dress seated on a bench in a garden. A man is sitting beside her, courting her while playing a flute. The lamp to the right depicts a young man and a young lady sitting on a tree trunk with a bird cage on his knee while she playfully leans over to observe with the bird. Both charming scenes are framed within a gilt foliate band with two impressive handles leading up each side. The back of each lamp is decorated with additional scrolled foliate gilt accents. All original gilt throughout.
