A stunning and palatially scaled pair of Spanish 19th century patinated bronze and copper Torchière floor lamps. Each most unique and extremely decorative ten light torchière is raised by an impressive 'S' scrolled tripod support with block feet and beautiful finely detailed leaves with charming flowers and flower buds. The central supports display most decorative square and spiraled designs with beautiful copper balls accented striking leaves and spiraled hoop handles. Above, each of the stunning scrolled arms is adorned with beautiful leaves and most decorative copper flower buds seemingly growing out of the impressive reeded copper urns. At the centers are superb and most unique frosted flames encased in additional beautiful scrolled leaves.

Base Diameter: 23"
