A stunning and extremely decorative pair of Venetian 19th century Louis XV st. Walnut consoles. Each most elegant console is raised on slender cabriole legs with beautiful scrolled foliate feet and richly carved Rocaille and foliate scrolls at the corners. The pierced frieze displays an exceptional scalloped shape with additional wonderfully executed Rocaille and branch carvings with scrolled fillets extending to the sides. The scalloped tops displays exceptional Walnut grains and mottled borders. All original rich and warm patina throughout.
