A sensational and extremely decorative Russian 19th century Empire st. patinated bronze, crystal, and ormolu chandelier. The twelve arm chandelier is centered by a fine solid crystal ball below a richly chased inverted ormolu floral finial and beautiful uniquely shaped patinated bronze body. Each elegantly scrolled arm branches out from handsome lion heads and are adorned with striking teardrop shaped crystal pendants and superb intricately detailed open winged maidens leading to floral candle cups. Beautiful chains lead upwards centering the curved ormolu central support adorned with most unique and extremely decorative bells with fine crystal pendants below lovely scrolled foliate movements. The impressive top crown displays richly chased floral sprays with additional beautiful tear drop shaped cut crystal pendants.
