A sensational and rare Russian 19th century Neo-Classical st. ormolu, rock crystal and cobalt blue glass sixteen arm chandelier. The chandelier is centered by a striking solid rock crystal ball amidst a beautiful and most decorative array of teardrop and kite shaped cut rock crystal pendants. At the center is an stunning hand blown cobalt blue glass ball below a fine glass plate encased by elegant pierced ormolu palmettes and adorned with rock crystal pendants. Above is an outstanding wrap around ormolu band with a fine interlocking pattern with richly chased block rosettes from which each of the eight pairs of arms branch out. Each of the elegantly scrolled arms displays superb pierced bobeches and finely chased candle cups with rope like wrap around bands. At the center of each pair of arms is a charming rock crystal flower with a lovely kite shaped cut crystal pendant. The exquisite top crown displays additional rock crystal pendants, most decorative flowers and a magnificent and most decorative hand blown cobalt blue ball encased in pierced ormolu palmettes above. Wonderful proportions.
