A stunning and extremely decorative Russian early 19th century Neo-Classical st. patinated bronze, ormolu and cobalt blue glass eight arm chandelier. The chandelier displays a most impressive bottom ormolu foliate finial centering the beautiful fitted cobalt blue glass pane. A slender ormolu band extends along the center decorated with fine foliate mounts and rosettes. The striking eight scrolled rinceau shaped arms branch out from handsome richly chased lion heads and display graceful reeded floral candle cups. Eight foliate and linked patinated bronze and ormolu chains lead up to the exceptional canopy with a beautiful inverted finial and fabulous pierced palmettes.
