An elegant and most attractive set of eight French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated wood dining chairs. Each chair is raised by fine circular tapered fluted legs with lovely topie shaped feet and mottled top caps below charming richly carved block rosettes. The straight apron displays a decorative mottled design also repeated at each side and the back as well at the frame of the upholstered back support. Upholstered in an azure color diamond design velvet with brass nail heads. All original patina throughout.
Seat Height: 19"
