An extremely decorative and complete set of eight Italian 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood caned dining chairs. Each chair is raised by elegant circular tapered fluted legs with fine block cabochons. At the frieze is a charming carved pattern on a mottled patinated background. The wide caned seat displays a tied cushion while the oval caned back support is framed in a wonderful beaded and twisted ribbon giltwood pattern. The cane is in excellent condition. With all original patina and gilt.
