A handsome set of four French 19th century Louis XV st. Giltwood armchairs. Each wonderful armchair is raised on cabriole legs with finely carved top and bottom acanthus leaves below the scalloped apron accented by an elegant central shell carving flanked by scrolls and foliate elements. The scrolled upholstered arms lead to the back of each chair, which displays the same mottled border and charming natural colored French nails below a wonderful central foliate reserve. Wonderful proportions throughout.
