A handsome and statement making set of four French mid 19th century Louis XVI st. two arm ormolu sconces. The sconces top central urns of prosperity with blossoming flowers all on square supports with decorative rosettes. At the center of each sconce are two 'S' scrolled fluted electrified arms with richly chased acanthus leaves. The elegant arms lead to circular acanthus leaf decorated saucers and candle cups. The arms are joined by swaging floral garlands above fluted tapered back plates. The bottom of each sconce is finished with a reeded band with an 'X' design above laurel leaves and acorns. Wonderful proportions.
