A rare and most impressive set of four Italian 18th century Louis XVI period giltwood torchière floor lamps. Each floor lamp is raised by a triangular base with fine scrolled foliate feet and concave sides. The elegantly shaped tapered central supports display richly chased swaging berried laurel garlands, beautiful mottled designs, and reeded bands below large finely detailed leaves. Above are additional charming swaging berried laurel garlands and the foliate top caps retaining their original pressed metal trays and baluster shaped candle cups.
