A sensational and high quality set of four Italian 19th century signed gouaches in the manner of Michelangelo Maestri. The set of gouaches each depict a charming and whimsical winged cherub in his chariot with each chariot is being pulled either by lions, griffins, goats or panthers. Each cherub has wonderful expressions with draped fabrics flowing in the wind showing the speed at which each animal is pulling the chariot. All are framed within a gilt mottled rectangular shaped frames with matting. Exceptional details throughout with wonderful and vivid colors.
