A charming set of fourteen French 19th century Louis XV st. patinated dining chairs. Each chair is raised by elegant slender cabriole legs with carved acanthus leaves and a top floral rosette. The arbalest shaped front is centered by a lovely floral rosette and foliate movements. The cushioned back support is framed in a curved patinated molded frame decorated with acanthus leaves and centered by a top finely carved floral cabuchon. All original patina throughout. Seat height: 21"
