A handsome and complete set of six Italian 18th century Louis XIV period walnut dining chairs. Each chair is raised by elegant ball feet below block reserves and lovely turned legs each connected by a finely mottled stretcher. The seat displays a beautiful arbalest shaped apron with a fine wrap around mottled border. The upholstered back supports also display most decorative scalloped shapes with finely mottled borders. Upholstered in a lovely seafoam colored fabric with fine brass nail heads.

Seat Height 21"
