An elegant and high quality true pair of French 18th century Louis XVI period Vert Patricia marble, Ormolu, and patinated Bronze candelabras. Each wonderful three arm candelabra is supported on a square Ormolu plinth with a circular pedestal above. The marble pedestal above is decorated with mottled edges, a beaded Ormolu band, and a Coeur-de-Rai band. The body of the pedestal is tastefully decorated with swaging floral Ormolu garlands. The capital displays a circular mounting plate with reeded designs that supports the patinated Bronze maiden above who is dressed in flowing garments. The maiden is holding a branch which wraps around her waist and expands into an array of wandering branches of leaves and blooming flowers. Three of the branches have blooming flowers candle cups.
