A high quality true pair of French 19th century Belle Époque period Louis XVI st. Rouge Griotte marble, patinated Bronze and Ormolu candelabras.

Each exquisite two arm candelabra is raised by a Rouge Griotte marble pedestal and supported on a square Ormolu base plate. The square mottled edged plinth has a circular shaft above accented with an Ormolu berried laurel vine around the bottom. Sitting joyfully on the pedestal's top capital is a patinated Bronze cherub accompanied by an Ormolu fabric gently wrapped around his leg. The cherub poses with his arms fully extended and grasping Ormolu torches containing acanthus leaf decorations with tastefully designed candle cups above. The candle cups are beautifully decorated with swaging laurel garlands, fluted designs, and Vitruvian patterns.
