A stunning and true pair of French 19th century Charles X period Ormolu candelabras. Each four arm candelabra is raised on an octagonal Ormolu base below reeded scrolled leaves decorated by palmettes. Charming period figures stand above in classical attire and on foliate pedestals while holding cornucopias over their shoulders supporting the candelabras above. Each stunning candelabra consist of three scrolled arms leading to foliate candle cups and bobeches, and a fourth central arm at a higher level. All exceptional and original satin and burnished finish throughout.
