A sensational and large scale true pair of French 19th century Louis XV st. Belle Époque period ormolu and porcelain vases, attributed to François Linke. Each lidded vase is raised by elegant pierced scrolled foliate feet below a luxuriant richly chased acanthus leaf and foliate designs that lead up the bodies. The beautiful and most uniquely shaped porcelain bodies display baluster like designs. Above are additional intricately detailed foliate designs and the stunning richly chased pierced removable lids in an exceptional satin and burnished finish.

François Linke (1855-1946) Renowned 19th Century Parisian Ébéniste. Linke created historical interpretations of Louis XV and Louis XVI styles. He displayed at the Paris Universal Exhibition of 1900 where he received a gold medal.
