An exceptional true pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and black Belgian marble statues. Each statue is raised by a circular black Belgian marble base with a fine mottled design. The ormolu statues above each display a lovely ground designed base where the two beautiful maidens are standing. They are both dressed in wonderfully executed flowing dresses and wear their hair in a charming updo. One is holding her hand up while holding a stick while the other has a caldron at her feet.
