An extremely elegant true pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and patinated bronze three arm candelabras. Each candelabra is raised by four foliate topie shaped feet below the reeded mottled circular base decorated with a finely chased foliate band and wonderfully executed draped swag. Each displays charming and wonderfully detailed patinated bronze figures, one of a handsome young boy, the other of a beautiful young girl. Each are dressed in period attire and hold an ormolu fluted flower basket with most decorative large foliate movements leading up to finely chased floral candle cups.
