A charming true pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu, patinated bronze and marble single arm lamps attributed to F. Linke. Each lamp is raised by a circular mottled Rouge Griotte marble base with a decorative ormolu and patinated bronze band. At the center are finely executed patinated bronze winged cherubs standing on an impressive and richly chased ormolu seashell. One cherub holds two arrows while the other holds a bow with a quiver at his side. Both hold a beautiful ormolu flower candle cup with a cut Baccarat crystal bobeches.
