A fine true pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated bronze and Rouge Griotte lamps. Each lamp is raised by a circular rouge Griotte marble base with a mottled border. The patinated bronze socle pedestal displays a lovely fluted and reeded design with a charming wheat sprig. The body displays richly chased scenes of farms with lush foliage and charming chickens pecking in a pen. Each lamp displays curved handles and a beautiful maiden sitting to the right in flowing dress while a young boy sits to the left, facing the girl, while wearing dungarees. All original patina throughout.
