An elegant true pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated wood side tables/chests. Each one door and one drawer table is raised by fine circular tapered fluted legs below a charming beaded band which wraps around each side. At the center is one door decorated with a finely carved recessed panel decorated with charming rosettes and iron pulls flanked by fluted columns with one drawer above displaying most decorative interlocking carved designs. Each side and backs also display elegant recessed panels. Above are the original wonderfully executed faux painted marble tops. All original patina throughout.
