A wonderfully unique true pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Terra Cotta and Marseilles Pink marble busts. The busts are of a young boy and young girl, both being raised by a circular Marseilles Pink marble socle with mottled edges. The bust of the young boy showcases his formal attire with attention to detail along the collar and neck line. The bust of the young girl displays a charming expression while her hair is elegantly tied back in an updo.
