A stunning true pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Vert Campan marble and ormolu urns. Each urn is raised by an elegant square base with concave corners, a fine mottled border, and a delicate bottom ormolu fillet. The socle shaped pedestal supports display beautiful spiral fluted designs moving in opposite directions on each urn with a richly chased wrap around tied ormolu oak leaf band. The elegantly shaped bodies are encased in exceptional richly chased foliate designs leading up each side to striking scrolled acanthus leaf handles connected by intricately detailed swaging berried and foliate garlands. The necks display remarkable wrap around geometric bands below lovely foliate designs and superb top berried finials.
