An impressive and high quality true pair of French 19th century Restauration st. patinated bronze, ormolu, and black Belgian marble candelabra lamps. Each five arm lamp is raised by a most decorative hexagonal black Belgian marble base with a fine mottled design, two beautiful wrap around ormolu bands, and a striking central ormolu family crest reserve. At the center are impressive handsome bearded knights dressed in full armor and holding their lances. Above are striking wonderfully executed leaves and branches seemingly growing upwards leading to the five beautiful richly chased berried laurel leaf candle cups and centering the outstanding family crest reserves. The crests display exceptional scrolled geometric movements on shields with spears and swords behind.
