A striking and high quality true pair of French 19th century Renaissance st. patinated bronze, ormolu, and black Belgian marble statues of Hermes and Minerva. Each statue is raised by impressive square black Belgian marble bases with an elegant stepped and lightly curved design. The statue to the left depicts the beautiful Minerva wearing sandals with ormolu accents and draped in a wonderfully executed flowing garment while leaning on her remarkable shield and holding a finely detailed berried laurel branch. The statue to the right depicts the handsome Hermes wearing his armor with wonderful scrolled foliate designs and his winged petasus with a shield on his left arm and holding a sword in the other.
