A charming and finely detailed true pair of Italian 19th century Louis XVI st. terra cotta and giltwood statues. Each statue is raised by an elegant circular mottled base where each personage above stands on a ground designed base.

To the left is a handsome gentleman dressed in striking period attire while holding an impressive large giltwood spear. To the right is a beautiful young lady also dressed in period attire blowing in to a horn while leaning on her giltwood spear. All original warm and rich patina throughout.
