A beautiful and extremely decorative true pair of Italian 19th century Venetian st. giltwood mirrors. Each mirror retains its beautiful original etched mirror plates. Each displays finely detailed and most charming cherubs at the top and bottom with Roman emperors at the centers framed within an oval reserve with flags, charming tied ribbons and swaging laurel garlands. The mottled giltwood frames displays striking sun shaped floral reserves at the bottom while the elegant pierced top crowns display beautiful scrolled foliate designs with fine laurel garlands leading down each side. All original gilt throughout.
