A spectacular and very high quality true pair of Italian early 19th century Baroque st. giltwood mirrored sconces. Each three arm sconce displays exceptional and most decorative scrolled design throughout with beautiful pierced foliate gadroon movements set on all their original mirrored backplates. Each of the arms displays an exceptional scrolled design adorned with lovely acanthus leaves leading to fine circular foliate bobeches. At the center are impressive masterfully carved busts of the nymph Syrinx and the Greek god Pan with exquisite attention to detail with a smooth cabochon reserve all below stunning scrolled foliate movements and additional original most decorative mirrored backgrounds. All original gilt throughout.
