An impressive and most elegant Venetian 18th century Louis XV Period Walnut and Brass buffet. This palatially scaled buffet is raised by four short cabriole feet supporting the main cabinet consisting of four drawers flanked by two doors. Each drawer and door face is centered by an inlay of burl Walnut surrounding the Brass keyhole, framed by medium stained Walnut, and trimmed with lighter Walnut inlaid fillets. The doors open to reveal the paper backed interior and to showcase the single stationary self to each side. The recurve shaped top is made from eight bookmatched panels of burl Walnut framed by medium Walnut, and trimmed light walnut fillets.
