An impressive and monumentally scaled Italian late 18th/early 19th century faux painted Vert Doral marble and mecca console, from Sicily. The freestanding console is raised by a fine mottled band below stunning scrolled supports adorned with beautiful large richly carved acanthus leaves and most decorative luxuriant foliate movements. The central back panel displays a wonderfully executed faux marble design with a fine mottled mecca frame. Above is the striking thick faux painted Vert Doral marble top with an impressive mottled mecca border. All original gilt, mecca and patina throughout.

Matching console item # 4866 sold separately.
