A spectacular Italian mid 18th century giltwood and Rosso Verona marble console. The freestanding console is raised by beautiful and most impressive scrolled legs with elegant scrolled feet adorned with most decorative richly carved acanthus leaves and berried laurel garlands. Each leg is connected by a stunning luxuriantly scrolled stretcher with remarkable foliate carvings and a central richly detailed mask and palmette. Above a mottled giltwood band is the original Rosso Verona marble top with rounded corners and an elegant mottled border. All original gilt throughout.
