A stunning French 19th century Louis XVI st. Brèche de Sicile marble and ormolu lamp. The lamp is raised by a most elegant circular ormolu base with four feet decorated with rich block rosettes and fine beaded and foliate wrap around band. Above the socle shaped pedestal is the solid Brèche de Sicile marble body encased in a charming foliate ormolu mount. At the center is a central medallion of an emperor flanked by floral and swaging fabric garlands leading to beautiful richly chased maidens at each side with elegantly scrolled handles. All original gilt throughout and shown with a pleated gold silk shade.
