An elegant English 18th century Regency crouch mahogany server console. Raised on a solid plinth at each side, with concave façades and doors above, one with an interior shelf. At the apron are three drawers with finely chased ormolu lion heads with ring pulls. All the doors and drawers have ebonized fruitwood borders and tulipwood trim. They are flanked by columns decorated with triangular tulipwood designs. Above is the impressive arbalest shaped solid mahogany top with inlaid border. Fine grain and warm patina throughout.
