A beautiful and very unique English 19th century Neo-Classical st. Wedgwood and white Jasperware plaque of Apollo, framed within an Italian patinated and Giltwood frame. This action-filled plaque of Apollo as a Charioteer displays four majestic reigned steeds with flowing manes pulling Apollo on his chariot. Apollo is dressed in a cape flowing in the wind with his hair pushed back proving the power that pulls him through the clouds. This wonderful plaque is framed within a Giltwood frame that contains mottled inner edges, a recessed central band, and a beautiful Coeur-de-Rai outer edge.
