A handsome English 19th century Regency st. Mahogany, Kingwood and Maplewood dining table. The table is raised by four square tapered legs decorated with Maplewood fillets atop of their original Brass casters. The straight mottled apron is decorated with an elegant Kingwood fillet, with each of the two original extensions have aprons, and display the same decorative inlaid fillets. The table opens and closes via the original crank, and when open reveals the original hardware and mechanism signed by Joseph Fitter.

Length Closed: 59.25"
