A striking and extremely unique English 19th century Regency st. Rosewood and ivory side/center table. The octagonal shaped table is raised by its original casters and elegantly curved feet decorated with lovely foliate inlaid designs framed in delicate fillets below striking circular spiral fluted supports with lovely turned designs. Each support is connected by a square stretcher with beautiful balustrade like designs, additional turned supports and a beautiful central inlaid foliate ivory reserve. The octagonal shaped top displays a most decorative scalloped border and also displays a stunning intricately detailed inlaid ivory and wood central reserve with lovely luxuriant scrolled foliate designs and seashells set on a beautiful Rosewood background showcasing the beautiful wood grain framed within delicate inlaid fillets at the border.
