A handsome and most unique Italian 17th century Baroque Period Walnut and Giltwood cabinet. This wonderfully decorative demi lune shaped two door cabinet is raised on three tapered fluted Walnut legs below the half round apron adorned with swaging foliate Giltwood garlands. A delicate Giltwood filet accents the apron below charming rosettes and architectural columns displaying large scale acanthus leaves. The central column is flanked by a pair of elegant Giltwood key escutcheons, and the two rounded doors. Each door displays a wonderful rectangular panel decorated with a Giltwood foliate frame and showcasing a intricately carved scene. To the left is a stunning maiden dressed in period attire with a charming child pulling at her dress, while the right depicts a handsome soldier accompanied by his page. The doors open upon their original hinges and reveal a single shelf inside. Above is the wonderful demi lune shaped Walnut top framed within a lovely egg and dart Giltwood border.
