A very attractive and extremely decorative Italian 18th Century Baroque period freestanding four legged Demi Lune console. The console is raised by four 'S' scrolled legs with a fantastic faux Tortoiseshell finish and embellished with carved gilt flowers below a 'C' scroll. The front and sides are decorated by central pierced reserves with acanthus leaves and cobalt blue accents. The top of the frieze is designed with gilt scrolls above a cobalt blue background. All below a stunning and most impressive faux Porphyry top bordered by a bullnose gilt edge.
