A striking Italian 18th century Baroque period giltwood mirror. The mirror plate at the center is framed within a most elegant mottled border with beautiful richly chased foliate designs and lovely intricately detailed blooming flowers amidst charming scrolled branches and foliate designs at the outer border set on a most decorative hammered background. Beautiful finely carved swaging floral garlands drape down each side while the stunning pierced top crown displays three richly carved charming cherubs seated holding their harvests amidst beautiful scrolled acanthus leaves and a most decorative canopy above with a lovely foliate finial.
