A handsome Italian 18th century Baroque st. Walnut cabinet/bookcase. The two door two drawer cabinet is raised by an elegant mottled stepped base below superb column like designs leading upwards flanking the doors. Each door is decorated with beautiful recessed panels with most decorative mottled borders and which open to reveal one shelf and all original hardware. The two drawers display circular Walnut knobs set on a recessed panel with the sides also displaying recessed mottled panels and showcasing the warm wood grain. The open upholstered display case retains its original six adjustable shelves flanked by impressive architectural columns also decorated with beautiful mottled designs and carvings at the top of scrolled foliage. Above is the impressive top mottled crown. All original patina throughout.
