A most handsome Italian 18th century Directoire period walnut, ebony and Bleu Turquin marble cabinet. The elegant four drawer, two door cabinet is raised by four rectangular legs with mottled ebony feet. At the center are three drawers showcasing the beautiful walnut grain centered by elegant richly chased foliate designed ormolu keyhole escutcheons with lovely hammered patterns. At each side are doors with a fine curved shape also displaying ormolu keyhole escutcheons and flanked by superb circular tapered ebony columns with mottled ormolu top and bottom caps. The frieze displays block reserves above each column and one concealed drawer at the center. Above is the beautiful original Bleu Turquin marble top. All original gilt and patina throughout.
